The Meaning of the Cross and the Help Which God Promises Us

Lenten Discussion
Taught by Stan Culy
RUMC Library

7-8:30 pm

Monday	March 6	Inspiration Out of Disaster
Monday	March 13	God Reconciles Us to Himself
Monday	March 20	God Comes in the Nick of Time
Monday	March 27	An Inner Peace

Stan Culy will be leading a discussion of four scriptures during Lent which will deepen our understanding of the meaning of Jesus going to the cross and the help which God promises to bring to us. The discussions will be Mondays from 7 pm to 8:30 pm during the month of March.

Come for some or all of the classes. Join the discussion. All are welcome.

Dear Church Family,

When I think of March, the first thing that comes to mind is St. Patrick's Day. On the 18th of this month, our church will host our traditional Corn beef and Cabbage dinner. We invite you to this wonderful meal.

St. Patrick's Day came about when Maewyn Sucat was born of aristocratic parents in 387 AD; his name given at his baptism was Patrick. When he was fifteen years old, Patrick was captured by pirates and taken to Ireland as a slave for six years. During his captivity, Patrick had a conversion experience on the Irish island. Patrick was able to escape; he became a priest and later returned to the land of his enslavement as bishop of the church. Patrick was known for teaching the ways of God through the shamrock.

For this month, consider the St. Patrick prayer as a source for meditation. I would encourage you to pray these words either when you wake up or go to bed. In this prayer, we are asking God to strengthen, guard, and instruct us. It is similar to the Lord's Prayer, where we pray for strength against the evil one. As we continue to walk in our Christian faith, may Christ go before us as we do His will.

St. Patrick Prayer

May the Strength of God pilot us.
May the Power of God preserve us.
May the Wisdom of God instruct us.
May the Hand of God protect us.
May the Way of God direct us.
May the Heavenly Host of God guard us.
Against the snares of the evil ones.
Against the temptations of the world.
May Christ be with us.
May Christ be before us.
May Christ be in us. Christ be over all.
May thy salvation Lord, always be ours.
This Day and forevermore. Amen.

Go beneannai Da duit (May God bless you)

Pastor Paul

RUMC Church Council meeting January 29, 2017

Minutes

Chair: Susan Lessoff

Recording secretary: Terri J. Goldich

Attending members: Pastor Paul O'Neil, David Saunders, Mel Bacha, Don Ross, Candy Sunderland, Steve Yoder, Sylvia Yoder, Linda Shivers

Pastor: The Pastor has volunteered RUMC to host the ecumenical Thanksgiving service with other churches invited. Pastor will go back to the group to determine the date.

He will put his trailer in the December Torchlight parades. With Charlie Maupin, he will dress it up with a Christmas theme with a sign for RUMC. A small group of people will work on the float.

RUMC has been invited to Union Congregational on Maundy Thursday (people may be too busy getting ready for the Good Friday walk). The pastor wants to add something from the church to the town green and will investigate what is necessary. He is also taking an EMR course on Wednesday and Saturday. For Ash Wednesday, he suggests us going back to Crystal Lake church. He is also thinking of doing a dinner church in March or April, with non-church people invited. More discussion will be necessary, concerning publicity and planning.

Nat Woodruff contacted the bishop following his visit, who invited Nat and the Pastor will be visiting for a discussion. Anyone can contact the Bishop directly.

Christian Education: Report attached.

Lay Leaders: Candy is still looking for liturgists and people to sign up for coffee hours. A couple of people may be becoming members in the near future. A few other people are church shopping.

Trustees: Report attached.

Don Ross made a motion, seconded by Mel, to allow the Village for Family and Children to use the church free of charge to prepare tax forms on Monday 5:30-8:30 and Saturday 9-12 during tax season. The motion passed.

Finance, Treasurer and Financial Secretary:

Big picture - since we asked for additional support we've raised $11.3k through a combination of additional giving and increased pledges ($6.8k) and fundraisers we've committed to for 2017 ($4.5k). This should cover our program funding for 2017 excluding mission shares. The additional giving and funding will also allow us to support approximately $2k of mission shares and assuming there aren't any other funding needs that come up, additional incremental gifts could go towards mission shares (just remember we're counting on $4.5k from the fundraisers). Bottom line - big applause here for the working group and those who've committed to these new fundraising ideas as well as those who've stepped forward with some extra special giving. Allison's been making me aware of any special additional giving and I've been sending out thank you cards to those individuals.

The other fundraisers are butter braids, conference grants, Dunkin week, rest stop, local businesses, rock band concert, and talent auction. Sylvia has suggested that the Hockanum Valley Ringers do a benefit concert with our chime ringers and the Grove Street Music Project.

SPRC: The committee was not be able to meet last week and currently has no chair. No meeting is scheduled.

Lay Leadership: No report.

Missions: No report.

Visitation and Nurture: No report.

Worship: A meeting for Thursday Feb. 9 before choir is scheduled.

Music: No report.

UMW: See Judie's report under Vernon Community groups.

Men' Club: The bake sale at the corned beef dinner will benefit the Stop Hunger Now project. The dinner will be March 18. Two weeks from today is the 8am Valentine's Day breakfast so please sign up.

Vernon community groups:

FOR CHURCH COUNCIL 1/29/17 FROM JUDIE CULY

Friday I received an email advising us that Stop Hunger Now has a new name -Rise Against Hunger.

My immediate feeling is that we will stick with the original for our April 1st event.

Eileen Gay will be our cheerleader for promoting event at Sunday services after the middle of February. I am handling the details. There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board that Diane graciously created for us.

To date $1,290 has been given or promised toward funding of the $3,000 required. Planning a baked potato luncheon probably after church to be hosted by the Joy Family—date to be determined.

Good Friday Walk is on April 14th. Our planning meeting will be on Tuesday evening at 7 pm (1/31). This year the proceeds will be given to Sharing, Inc. 2/3 and The Cornerstone Foundation, Inc. 1/3.

Tea & Text continues to meet. Next meeting on Friday 2/5. Study book is One Simple Act, Discovering the Power of Generosity by Debbie Macomber.

My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you John 14:27

We have not set the dates yet so please speak to me if you are interested.

Small groups: No report.

Refugee Committee report: Steve will ask Catholic Charities and the family about doing a story in a few months. The JI story about the family in Tolland was almost two pages.

The Marri kids will be starting school in the coming week.

Publicity: Steve wonders if Janice would be willing to approach the JI about doing a story. See Refugee Committee report.

Council Chair: No report.

Retired Pastor's report:

FOR CHURCH COUNCIL FROM STAN CULY

I am leading four discussions in Lent on these wonderful scriptures:

"He was wounded for our transgressions." Isaiah 53:5

"God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself." 2 corinthians 5:19

"we are afflicted in every way but not crushed." 2 corinthians 4:8

Old Business: Story in JI about refugee family. Steve will follow up with Janice.

New Business: none.

Respectfully submitted,

Terri J. Goldich

MARRI FAMILY UPDATE

Approximately three months ago, on December 5th, the Marri family spent the first night in their new Connecticut home on a cold Monday night in New Britain. The Marri's fled the civil war in Syria and stayed for over five years in a refugee camp in Turkey. Catholic Charities brought the family here. Our part of the process began with furnishing the apartment for the family before they got here.

RUMC collected and stored the furniture and household supplies until we were assigned a family. The time-frame to set up the apartment was very short – three days. Once we had the keys to the apartment, eight of our volunteers worked very hard on Friday December 2nd, cleaning the apartment from top to bottom and making repairs; several volunteers worked for more than eight hours. On Saturday, twenty-four volunteers moved all of the furniture to the house and continued cleaning, set-up, and repairs. On Sunday, seven volunteers worked doing more cleaning and installed a new kitchen floor. On Monday the 5th, thirteen volunteers worked VERY hard up to the minute the family arrived making sure bed linens were in place and the apartment was ready and stocked with food. Several stayed late to greet the family.

Mahmoud, the Marri's social worker from Catholic Charities, took the children to a doctor's check-up and entered them in school February 3rd. Five of their delightful children between the ages of five and ten and began school; the two little ones stay home.

The mother, Aisha, told Steve how grateful she is to our church people for all the help we gave them. Aisha began her English classes at the New Britain YWCA which is just two blocks away from where they live. The father, Mohamed, began his classes to learn English on Feb. 15th at a community center about three miles from their house.

On February 5th, we invited the Marri family to our fellowship hall so we could meet them and celebrate their new life in our country. The seven children charmed everyone with their individual personalities and animation. The RUMC children demonstrated that they are the fine people we know them to be as they helped the Marri children feel at home. The kids were determined to have a game of soccer in the church yard, and the snow on the ground didn't dampen their delighted faces as they played. Since they do not speak English yet, we invited several interpreters to help us understand each other. Our interpreters were Nancy Latof, an American who married a Lebanese man living in this country; a Syrian man by the name of Wail Allababidi who lives in Berlin; and Alaeddin and Roushan Abdi who are Syrians who came to live in Glastonbury six years ago.

Although their religion is Muslim, that seemed to be secondary to the fact that they are another family of God's children who desperately needed a safe place to live. They have found it with us. In the years to come, I see the Marri children graduating from high school, going on to college and becoming loving and helpful citizens in our country. We can be thankful that we were fortunate enough to have this opportunity to connect with them at this crucial time in their lives.

Church Closings

If our church has to cancel a class, activity or event (examples: worship service, Sunday school, choir practice, dinner event) due to inclement weather, etc., we will post the cancellation notice on WFSB Channel 3. This will be our way of communicating cancellations throughout the winter season. Likely notices are: "No religious ed." (Sunday school canceled), "Event cancelled" or "Closed".

We have added NBC Channel 30 (WVIT) to our cancellation notices. Channel 3 doesn't put all of their cancellations on the TV station; WVIT puts more events on the TV crawl. Both stations will have our cancelations on their websites.
