

WORKING AGAINST HUNGER

Sealing the deal

Above, Ann Provencher of Somers, left, and Adrienne Baxter of Tolland seal packaged meals at the Rockville United Methodist Church on Saturday. The church hosted a "Stop Hunger Now Meal Packaging Event" with a goal of packaging 10,000 meals in a day. Each meal serves six and costs 29 cents. At left, Don Ross of Tolland adds rice to the meal packets before they are sealed.
