GATHERING MEDITATION

“Be anxious for nothing but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God” (Philippians 4:6). What an important bible verse for us today! It seems like the world is on fire and we are in panic. But friends, don’t we know that without God’s command, even a bird can’t fall down on the ground? As we have faith in God, the last thing we can do is to “panic” and the first thing we should do is to pray! Let us stand calm and lift up all our worries and concerns to our Father in heaven.

GREETINGS/ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

L: We will walk this day with you, O God, and you will walk with us,

P: Call us to follow you and set aside all that which holds us back.

L: We will walk this day with you, O Christ, and you will walk with us,

P: Help us to walk with others and carry on each one’s burdens.

L: We will walk this day with you, O Spirit and you will walk with us,

P: Send us out and empower us to serve those who are crying for your healing.

OPENING PRAYER

Eternal God, we live in fear and suffering coming from the things that we can’t control with our power. Be here with us now, keep us in your arms, and feed us with your grace and love. As you share your power with us, empower us to be like Christ our Lord to many others, joining in their suffering, keeping them in our hearts and prayers, and giving our hands to support their lives. As you lavish your love upon us, help us receive that love and offer it to the world. In Jesus’ name. Amen.

Dear Lord, when we suffer you have promised to hear our prayers. As we trust in you we come forward with our broken hearts and confess we are too weak to control this time of trial. Our hearts are filled with situations concerning family and friends, concerning neighborhoods and the world. We seek your healing and saving mercies for our worries, for people in suffering and for our wounded world.
