GATHERING MEDITATION

Good morning! Welcome to our worship; welcome to the presence of God. We like to think of our worship as a place where everyone is welcomed. But our welcome should not stay confined to these walls. We are called to adopt attitudes of fellowship and hospitality to many others we can meet in our workplace, our homes, our community, everywhere we go. our Lord Jesus welcomes us regardless of our faults and failings. As we want to follow him, let us be willing to welcome anyone among us and even serve those who may not return the favor.

CALL TO WORSHIP

L: I will sing of your steadfast love, O LORD, forever;
P: with my mouth I will proclaim your faithfulness to all generations.
L: I declare that your steadfast love is established forever;
P: your faithfulness is as firm as the heavens.
L: For you are the glory of their strength; by your favor our horn is exalted.
P: For our shield belongs to the LORD, our king to the Holy One of Israel.

CALL TO PRAYER

Lord, as we gather in your presence, we bring with us our cares and concerns, our joys and our sorrows. As you welcome us, we want to extend the hands of welcome and friendship to all whom we meet. Touch our hearts, heal us, and make us ready to become your faithful disciples, that we can touch, heal and bless many others. In Jesus Christ our eternal Friend, we pray. Amen.

SILENT PRAYER

PASTORAL PRAYER

Lord, following you, we know we are called to be willing to take the risk of hospitality and service for many others in our workplace, our homes, our community, everywhere we go. You reached out to people in all kinds of conditions. Many of those people had been rejected by their communities. They were in need of compassionate greeting and friendship. Lord Jesus, as you have welcomed us regardless of our faults and failings, let us also be a welcoming presence to all in your name. Amen.
