GATHERING MEDITATION

Brothers and sisters, our God of Trinity is a mystery to us, beyond the capacity of our thoughts and imaginations. From his voice came the whole creation, and it rests in our hearts. On this Sunday, let us give thanks and glory to the Holy One, that God will call our names and give us the Spirit, so that we might be God’s saving voices in the world with confidence and peace.

Holy God, you have given us grace, by the confession of the faith of your holy church, to acknowledge the mystery of the eternal Trinity and, in the power of your divine majesty, to worship the Unity. SILENT PRAYER

PASTORAL PRAYER

Most Holy God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we give you thanks that you have given yourself to us in Jesus Christ and that you continue to be present to us by your Spirit. Fill us and make us your people to witness to your grace upon all of your creatures. Dear Lord, as you come to us and bless our lives, help us to care for each other. Guide us to make peace with all races and to lead outsiders to your love. Dear heavenly Father, you nurse us every day. Bring healing to those with special needs, including those we mention at this time in our hearts or aloud All these prayers we entrust to you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, confident that you hear and bless your children. Alleluia. Amen.

As we receive the blessing of your fullness as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we receive also the commission to go into all the world to bring love, salvation, peace, and hope through you. May these gifts that we bring become a means to fulfill that commission, and may the lives that we choose to live this day and beyond be the way in which your commission is made manifest. Amen.
